Our summary

Camden County in New Jersey wants a vendor to run food services at its juvenile detention facility, procured through a competitive contracting process numbered 26-48. Sealed responses will be opened in public at the county courthouse in Camden on the stated date. Interested firms must obtain the full solicitation package by registering on the county's purchasing webpage and downloading the documents from there. Proposals may be mailed to the purchasing division on the sixth floor of the courthouse, or dropped in a designated bin at the sixth street entrance during weekday business hours. The county will not be responsible for delays caused by carriers or mail services. Bidders must follow New Jersey equal employment opportunity...
