Our summary

The state education department's Division of Administrative Services is seeking a proposer to supply a mental health clinician for the boarding school dormitories at Mt. Edgecumbe High School in Sitka. The successful clinician would give counseling and crisis support to students living on campus. The notice refers to attached files for the full scope, the required proposal contents and the evaluation details. Interested firms or individuals should prepare their response using the submittal forms and cost form included with the notice, then send it by the closing date. A sample professional services standard agreement is also provided, so respondents can review the expected contract terms before submitting. Questions about the solicitation should go to the named procurement officer by email. The notice was published in November 2026 and archives in early December 2026, so responses must be ready well before the stated deadline.
